Each match, after the first match of the day, the contestant will have a maximum of 2 minutes to report for their bout before forfeiture of the match.
11.
  - a. A wrestler must have 15 minutes between matches unless waived by both wrestlers. It is suggested that to track this Table workers place "time of day" on bout sheet at end of each match. The 15 minute rest time does not apply to matches in different divisions for double-entered wrestlers. These wrestlers should be given time to report, but cannot demand the 15 minute rest.
  - b. There are no restrictions on the number of bouts a wrestler may participate in per day. A wrestler's parents and coach are responsible for determining the number of matches he can safely wrestle.

  16. In case of emergency withdrawal, contact the Tournament director.
  17. Flagrant misconduct can occur before, during, or after a match and is any act considered by the official to be serious enough to disqualify a contestant from the match and any additional wrestling in the tournament. It would include, but is not limited to, intentional biting, striking, butting, elbowing, or kicking an opponent. Cursing officials or referees by contestants at any State Association tournament will not be tolerated and will be treated as flagrant misconduct.   21. Youth sized mats (24' x 24' or larger) are acceptable for tournaments. All possible efforts should be made to provide safety mats bordering the competition mats. When this is not possible, the tournament director should emphasize to the officials and coaches that "out-of-bounds" will be called as needed to protect the wrestlers.
  22. Due to the large number of wrestlers and coaches on many teams, coach misconduct and unsportsmanlike penalties will apply to the individual coach and not the head coach.

According to the “Novice” definition above this wrestler would now be considered an Open wrestler since the determination is based on when his first match was wrestled. For these special and limited situations, the wrestler may appeal to the Board of Directors to be classified as a Novice for the year he returns. The Board should verify special circumstances including a complete break from wrestling when considering the appeal.

TEXAS BRACKETS

(Eliminate entire section)

ROUNDROBIN TIE BREAKERS

2-Way Tie

1. Tie is decided by head to head result.

3-Way Tie

1. Win-loss among those tied.
2. Most pins among those tied.
3. Most technical falls (win by 12 or more) among those tied.
4. Most major decisions (win by 8-11) among those tied.
5. Net points (12 maximum) among those tied. Net points is the difference in score in a match. A wrestler who wins 7-2 and loses 3-5 will have 3 net points.
6. Most pins in the tournament.
7. Most technical falls in the tournament.
8. Most major decisions in the tournament.
9. Net points in tournament (12 maximum).
10. 3-Way tie for first will be settled by a 3-way sudden death playoff according to Overtime rules.

Note: In using tiebreakers, the first one used may settle all three places. For example: one wrestler may have 1 pin, the second may have a major decision, and the third may have won all his matches by decision. This situation completely determines first, second, and third places. Sometimes the effective tiebreaker places one wrestler first or third, but leaves the other two tied. The winner of their bout determines any two-way tie. For example: "net points" may tally 5-4-4 placing one man first. Don't look for any more tiebreakers; the tie for second is settled by the head-to-head result of the two wrestlers with 4 net points.

DOUBLE ELIMINATION BRACKETS

These brackets are the typical bracket used in all "National" tournaments, the State Tournament, and "Open" tournaments with over 400 entrants. After (2) two losses a wrestler is eliminated from this tournament.

1. 1 and 2 man automatic move-up to next weight unless heavyweight.
2. Move up exhibition only ... no point or record.
3. Challenge Third place can challenge 2nd if they have not previously met in the tournament.
4. Brackets receive byes in highest order of seed.

- 2 man brackets move up and wrestle in 1st round to determine original bracket. Winner places 1st and receives a maximum of 1 award. Loser placed 2nd and receives no award. In lower bracket, if move-up is not possible, bracket is treated in regular manner.
